PATHWAYS TO EXTREMISM: FATIMA BHUTTO

IN CONVERSATION WITH
AZADEH MOAVENI

Fatima Bhutto's stunning work of fiction, The Runaways, unearths some of the economic and social causes of Islamist extremism. Bhutto will delve into young people's anxieties and sense of belonging, the decision to trust in religious violence, and what role literature has to play in making sense of all of this.

30 March | 18:45 - 20:30

Asia House, London
